

Curriculum Vitae (including List of Publications) – Recommended Format:

Include the following sections in your CV:

I. Personal details:

(Optional) Date of birth, marital status and children
Place of birth, immigration date, military service, citizenship
Mailing Address, complete with area code
Contact Information: phone, fax, e-mail, personal home page

Education

Begin with the latest training/certificate awarded up to baccalaureate or other initial professional education, including postdoctoral training.

Please state:

Institute and location, Degree (if applicable), Duration (from year to year),
Field of study, Thesis title, Advisor

Employment History

Begin with current position up to oldest position.

Please state:

Institute and location, Position, Duration (from year to year), include
Sabbatical, Temporary positions

Academic Administration

Please state:

Institute and location, Duration (from year to year), Capacity (e.g. Dept. Head)

Other Appointments

Positions in academy; Membership in committees,
Teaching experience- courses taught
Membership in scientific advisory boards, consulting activities
Membership in Editorial boards

International Recognition

Please state:

- Name of prize/award, Entity awarding the prize/award
Also include Competitive Scholarships
- International organizing committees, Membership in juries, Review boards
- Talks at international meetings (year, organization, topic, place). Please separate between invited talks and other presentations.

Scientific Productivity

- Competitive national and international grants (Include list by year of award beginning with latest award granted: title, agency, amount/yr)
- Students and Postdoctoral fellows (name, years, current activities of former students)
- National and International collaborators.

Patents

Please include patent number, country of award
Start-ups, Involvement with companies

Languages

Scale: 1 (basic) to 3 (fluent)
Reading, Writing, Speaking

II. List of Publications:

- Has to be numbered; order from earliest to current.
- Indicate authors according to original order as appears in the scientific paper plus indicate first and last page of article.
- Indicate complete name of article, paper and year of publication plus exact reference.
- Divide into sub-sections between the following: Refereed articles, Invited reviews, Book Chapters, Invited editorials, Commentaries, Edited and original books, Others.
- Indicate Citation of 5 most cited articles. (e.g. use Science citation index (SCI) : <http://apps.isiknowledge.com>. To find number of citations please press on the "Web of science" tab.
You may consult a tutorial regarding how the Science citation index (SCI) may be used for this purpose:
<http://www.brainshark.com/brainshark/vu/view.asp?pi=624315825>

NOTE:

- Include under the subtitle submitted articles papers that were submitted but were not approved yet.
- Do not indicate papers under preparation.

III. Statement of current and future research interests (Research Plan):

Summary (3-15 pages) of your research: general outline, goals and future plan.