Abstract:
In this talk we will see how adapted pairs - introduced by A. Joseph about ten years ago, the analogue of principal s-triples for non reductive Lie algebras - may be used to prove the polynomiality of some algebras of invariants associated to a maximal parabolic subalgebra.