The talk will discuss informational lower bounds of approximate Nash equilibrium in two complexity models: Query Complexity and Communication Complexity. For both models we prove exponential (in the number of players) lower bound on the complexity of computing $\epsilon$-Nash equilibrium, for constant value of approximation $\epsilon$. 