Informational Bounds on Approximate Nash Equilibria

Abstract:

The talk will discuss informational lower bounds of approximate Nash equilibrium in two complexity models: Query Complexity and Communication Complexity. For both models we prove exponential (in the number of players) lower bound on the complexity of computing $\varepsilon$-Nash equilibrium, for constant value of approximation $\varepsilon$.

Yakov Babichenko
Technion