The talk will contain the necessary topological background on simplicial complexes, and will focus on the main idea of the proof: the local weak limit of random simplicial complexes and its role in the analysis of phase transitions. Joint work with Nati Linial.