1. Time dedication policy

As a matter of policy, the Feinberg Graduate School (FGS) does not to allow its full-time students (hereinafter: "students") and postdocs at the Weizmann Institute of Science (hereinafter: "the Institute") to work during their studies or training. This limitation is based on the perception that students and postdocs in science are required to devote most of their time and energy to scientific studies and research. However, the FGS will allow students and postdocs to engage in part-time internal employment subject to the conditions detailed below.

2. Definitions

2.1. Part time employment

An employment position limited to a number of weekly work hours, as follows:

- 2.1.1. MSc students: Up to 4 weekly hours.
- 2.1.2. PhD students: Up to 8 weekly hours.
- 2.1.3. Postdocs: Up to 8 weekly hours.

2.2. The applicant

A student or a postdoc applying for part-time employment within the Weizmann Institute.

2.3. The employer

The employer with whom the applicants seeks employment, and which is part of the Institute, and when the salary is paid by the Institute.

3. Basic Requirements

3.1. Work permit in Israel

This procedure applies only to Israeli citizens or holders of a work visa that entitles them to work in Israel. Students and postdoctoral fellows who are not citizens of the State of Israel are allowed to work in Israel only as teaching

5. The Application procedure

5.1. Consulting with the mentor

Together with the mentor, the applicant will consider the possible implications of employment on the progress of his/her studies, fellowship, and research.

5.2. Submission of an application form

The applicant will complete and sign an application form (see the Appendix), outlining the request. The form, signed also by the mentor, will be submitted to the FGS coordinator who handles the FGS approval procedures. The employment agreement between the applicant and the employer, detailing the terms of the employment – including the job description, the employee's duties, and the scope of the weekly hours of employment – should be attached to the application form.

5.3. First-year MSc students

First-year MSc students (for whom mentors have yet to be appointed) will consult the chair of the teaching committee and secure his/her signature on the application form.

6. FGS Approval

6.1. Discretion

The FGS will consider the application and, if necessary, will submit it for the review and approval of the Vice President for Technology Transfer. At the conclusion of the review process, the FGS will communicate its decision to the applicant and the mentor.

6.2. Approval validity period

The approval is until the end of the academic year (i.e. end of September), and its extension requires a renewed application, on a new form.

6.3. Commencing employment

The applicant may not begin to work prior to receiving the FGS approval.

6.4. Canceling the approval

The FGS reserves the right to cancel an approval provided in accordance with the above, if and when it emerges that the employment impairs the applicant's studies and. It is clarified that submitting a request for extending the due date
