Abstract:

We show how invariants of the orthosymplectic super group may be converted into invariants of super $\text{GL}_n$, using algebraic geometric arguments. By this means, we obtain precise versions of the first and second fundamental theorems of invariant theory for these groups, despite the absence of semisimplicity.